

CALL FOR PAPERS

LSP-PacSLRF 2020 Conference is a joint conference of the 12th Language for Specific Purposes International Seminar and the 8th Pacific Second Language Research Forum hosted by Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM).

Based on the theme "Language in Practice: Making a Difference" this conference would provide the avenue for the discussion and deliberation of pertinent issues related to language use, practice and research in various language for specific purposes contexts. Equally important would be studies and research in second language acquisition that support language use in the afore-mentioned contexts.
